

DETAILS OF DEATH OF CAPT. NICHOLS

Efforts In Battle Had Been Successful.

GEN. LAWTON SHOWS UTTER FEARLESSNESS IN FIGHTING.

During Battle He Is Always Near the Firing Line—Aides Have Begged Him to Be More Careful But Without Avail—Rebels Have Had Numerous Fair Shots At Him, But Each Time He Has Escaped By a Narrow Margin—Example Is Inspiring to Men.

Manila, June 12.—[Special]—Details of the death of Capt. Nichols, of the monitor Monadnock, who died suddenly of sun stroke Saturday, have been received here.

His vessel had been shelling Paranaque
all day and the efforts were being crowned with success when he was overcome.

The American troops were surrounding the town when the captain was taken to his cabin.

Just before he expired he said: "We have got the rebels at last." His funeral was held yesterday.

The American troops are still resting.
Gen. Lawton has shown utter fearlessness in his fighting and is always near the fighting line. His aides have begged him to be more careful, but without avail.

The rebels have had a number of fair shots at him, but each time Gen. Lawton has escaped by a narrow margin. This example is inspiring to his men, as their fighting shows.

News Show Need of More Troops.

Washington, June 12.—[Special]— News from Manila show clearly the necessity of more troops in the Philippines.

Army officials say it seems to be the policy to disperse the enemy instead of destroying them.

It is said that officials realize the situation and are about to take action on plans for raising a volunteer army of 35,000 men.

It has been discussed, but no steps in this direction will be taken until the five thousand regulars recently called for, are recruited.

Manila, June 12.—The town of Ta-guig, on Laguna de Bay, has been destroyed by the army gunboat Napidan,
in connection with the operations undertaken Saturday between San Pedro Macati and Paranaque by Gen. Lawton's forces. Gen. Lawton, with his escort, has reached the shore of the lake at a point eight miles south of where Taguig stood.

The American troops, after fighting their way from San Pedro Macati to a point south of Las Pinas, and dispersing the rebels in their path, found that it would be impossible to reach the beach of Manila bay before nightfall, and bivouacked in the fields. During the night the rebels evacuated Para-naque and Las Pinas, and the sound of their bugles could be plainly heard as the main body marched down the road to Bacoor. Other parties moved westward, taking with them their women and children.

The insurgents' supply train and their bulls and horses were all safely taken on the retreat. Gen. Lawton personally took up the pursuit of the insurgent bands, which retreated toward Laguna de Bay.

Sunday morning the American troops occupied Las Pinas and Paranaque.
They found plenty of "friends" among the natives, but no soldiers. A priest said that the rebels had retreated during the day and night, and that about 3,000 of them are not at Bacoor. Gen.
Noriel is in command of the insurgents.

The Americans will probably advance to Bacoor on Tuesday, after the men have had a chance to recover from the effects of their arduous campaign.
The Colorado regiment and the Thirteenth regulars are reported to be returning to Manila.

FIGHTING DURING RAINY SEASON.

It Is Believed Offensive Operations Can Be Carried On.

Washington, June 12.—The American advance from Manila south toward Paranaque confirms recent reports that the war against the insurgents would in all probability be carried on despite the rains. Gen. Otis recommended such a course some time ago, but the president was averse to subjecting the troops to any exposure which might bring a repetition of the terrible experience in the trenches around Santiago. The Morong battle and the advance on Paranaque, however, are considered sufficient proof that the rains will not necessitate inaction during the next two or three months, and that the advantage already gained will be followed up.

The greatest danger is from the heat.
The Americans suffer terribly from ex-posure to the sun, and the chief danger to be encountered is from sun-strokes. More soldiers will fall from heat exhaustion than from all other causes combined. By going to make their advances by early day and night, however, the forces can be moved over the island even during heated periods.

On the whole, it is believed the American forces can remain active advantageously during the season of rains, and that the troops can largely be kept immune from fevers and climatic diseases.

Hampers by Deadly Heat.

Washington, June 12.—In a dispatch received at the war department Gen.
Otis tells of the attempts to crush the rebels between Lawton's troops, which, despite the heat, was successful in causing the utter rout of the enemy's forces. The dispatch from Gen. Otis follows:

"Manila, June 11.—Terrific heat yesterday did not permit troops to reach positions at hours designated; enabled majority of insurgents to escape in scattered organizations south and westward, which they effected during the evening and night. Movement great success, however; enemy disorganized
and routed, suffering heavy loss;
troops resting today at Las Pinas and Paranaque. Navy did excellent execution along shore of bay, but many insurgent detachments retired in that direction, protected by presence of women and children whom they drove along with them.

"Our loss four killed and some thirty wounded. Report of casualties later.
Conservative estimate of enemy's loss
about 400."

IS STILL A MYSTERY

Another Portion of the Body of Supposed Murdered Man Found in River At New York.

New York, June 12.—[Special]—The identity of the man whose mutilated body was found floating off the river bridge Saturday, is still a mystery. Another portion of the body of the supposed murdered man was found in the river this morning.

A right arm found this afternoon had nine stars tattooed in it. It is believed now that the murdered man was a sailor and was killed and cut up on some vessel.

BELOIT COLLEGE WINS MEET

Defeats Lawrence University Team By Narrow Margin

Beloit college won the field day with Lawrence university at Appleton Saturday by the narrowest margin that a meet was ever won in that city, having an advantage at the close of the day of but 6 2/3 points out of a total of 109 scored. Three records were broken by the athletes, the 220-yard dash being lowered to 22 4/5 seconds, the 440-yard run to 52 seconds and the high jump being taken at 5 feet 4 inches. At noon Beloit had a lead over the Lawrence athletes of thirteen points and the advantage proved to be too great to be overcome by the Appleton team, though the men fought gamely to the last, taking the last event for all three places.
The final score was 57 5/6 points for Beloit and 51 1/6 for Lawrence. There were several surprises sprung during the day. Lawrence taking the hammer throw to the surprise of the field and losing many of the events that were considered sure scorers on the Lawrence side of the tally sheet.

Oue's livery barn on North Bluff street
this morning at 10 o'clock, Bert Beck accidentally fell down the hay chute to the floor below, a distance of thirty feet.

the rescue and found that the young man complained of internal pains.

Beck was taken to his home on Milton avenue and Dr. E. E. Loomis was summoned.

Close examination revealed that no
bones were broken, although the unfortu-

done for that purpose or to get them out of the country.

RECEIVES GOOD APPOINTMENT

John D. King Formerly of This City Is Again Favored

The Financial Review of New York
City under date of June 7 says:

The appointment of the veteran post office inspector, John D. King, to the position of inspector in charge of the New York division, is a good one. Few officials in the post office service are better known or respected by associates and public. Mr. King has been connected with the department for nearly a generation. During President Harrison's administration he was inspector in charge of the Washington division, subsequently of the Denver division and later of the Brooklyn branch of the New York division. His record has been one of duty faithfully performed and his transfer to the head of the principal office in the country is a recognition of his ability and qualifications.

A TRIBUTE TO JUDGE BENNETT

A. P. Burrows, of Fort Atkinson, Speaks of His Old Neighbor.

Fort Atkinson, June 11, 1899.—The first article in Saturday's Gazette to attract my attention this morning was the account of the demise of Judge John R.
Bennett. As he was my friend and neighbor in Janesville for upwards of twenty years, the news has made a profound impression on my mind, and I shall be pleased to offer a few words through the columns of The Gazette on some of his noble qualities. His physical and mental qualities were a type of those of Abraham Lincoln; nearer than any other man. His temperament was much like that of Lincoln. The general form of his body, color of hair and eyes were much like Lincoln. The mental traits of character were still more like Abraham Lincoln.

Ever full of kindness and ready to lend a helping hand to the needy and unfortunate. This extra kindness and interest in the welfare of children was one of his most noble traits of character.

This great veneration for the Supreme Being, manifested itself in every plea he made while a lawyer. I think it can be truly said of him that he never made a speech without quoting scripture, and referring to Him that rules above.

His only fault as a lawyer was his upright honesty, a very rare fault in lawyers, and it was this fault that made him judge. His mode of reasoning like Lincoln's, was chiefly by comparison and analysis of facts.

He lived an upright, moral and religious life, always giving his influence for whatever was great, good, and noble,
and a peacemaker among his fellow men. His work was worthy of emulation by the young and rising generation. His neighbors will miss him, and the citizens of Janesville will long remember the name of Judge John R.
Bennett.

A. P. BURROWS.

KAISER STILL IN THE WAY.

Attitude Assumed by Germany Blocks
the Arbitration Plans.

The Hague, June 12.—Although it is now generally accepted as a fact that Germany is opposing the plans for arbitration, the representatives of other governments are still hopeful of success. It is pointed out that while the German delegates refuse to recognize the principle of mediation on unknown disputes to come, the actual objections are of minor importance.

In his recent speech, Dr. Zorn, head of the German delegation, declared that the scheme under consideration could not be considered seriously by a great power, as it was pledging action in future matters which, perhaps, might be too grave for such a solution. However, it is known that negotiations are now on between the Berlin government and its representatives here.

Cleveland Strikers Quiet.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 12.—Not a wheel on the Big Consolidated railway turned Sunday. The strike situation was quiet. The police are making preparations for trouble, which is expected at any time. The arbitration board is in conference with President
Bryan of the Railway Men's union.

Draper Taken a Vacation.

Rome, June 12.—Mr. William F. Draper, the American ambassador, starts for the United States today on the routine leave of absence.

FAILURE OF STOUGHTON BANK

Attorney G. E. Roe of Madison Is Appointed Receiver.

The failure of the Dane County State bank, which had been a flourishing institution located at Stoughton, was owing to the failure of one of the large debtors of the bank to remit a part of his indebtedness as agreed. The cashier,
J. H. Joice, being absent from the city,
the step was taken by the president, O.
M. Turner, on advice of his attorney, J.
M. Clancey.

The assets are $223,000, with liabilities of $173,000. Of the liabilities $155,172 are due depositors; of the assets $110,000 are in notes and overdrafts against the Grand Falls Irrigation company of Grand Falls, Tex., composed of W. F. Olson of Chicago, I.
O. Erickson of Deerfield and others.
The value of the $110,000 of this kind is conjectural. If these foreign loans can be realized on, the creditors will be paid in full without the enforcement of the statutory liabilities of the stockholders and directors. All the outside loans, aggregating about $110,000, were taken on the recommendation of Cashier Joice, who appears to have been interested in Texas lands and Mexican cattle ranches.

I. O. Erickson, who is interested in a bank at Deerfield, is indebted to the bank in a large sum.

Receiver Roe of Madison, has taken charge of the bank and will proceed at once with the collection of its assets.

RESULT OF QUARRELS

James Lowe, of Neillsville, Wis., Shoots
His Wife and Then Attempts Suicide.

Neillsville, Wis., June 12.—[Special]—
In an altercation between James Lowe and his wife, who for years past have lived quarrelsome lives, culminated this morning in what will prove the most sensational tragedy that has ever occurred in this city.

It seems the quarrel which began last Friday was renewed this morning when it was learned by Lowe that his wife was packing her trunk preparatory to leaving him.

After many harsh words he shot her through the head and slashed her throat with a knife.

He then turned the revolver upon himself firing one shot at his head, the bullet glancing, and another through the lower jaw, the bullet lodging somewhere in his head.

Mrs. Lowe, despite her wounds, still lives but has no hope for recovery.

It is thought that Lowe will recover.
Mrs. Lowe, it is said, was once a popular actress.

La Prairie Sunday school has purchased

Briggs, of Chicago, will speak at grieved to hear the sad news of her death, which occurred in Denver, Col.

Fay was a dear little girl and will be sadly missed in her home circle. An ice cream social will be given at the Grange benefit of the Sunday school. The literary program will be given by teachers and officers. Ladies please furnish cake.

meeting next Saturday evening will be of special interest to the young and

KRUGER'S STAND AGAINST BRITISH

Storm Caused Is Still Bearing Fruit.

PANIC AMONG UITLANDERS
CONTINUES.

Empty Cars Being Run Northward
With All Possible Speed to Bring Them Away—British Statesmen
Wish For Peace In the Transvaal—
Charges That Chamberlain Is Working to Bring About An Armed Collision Between Boers and British Troops, Is Denied—Plan of Operation Drafted.

Cape Town, June 12.—[Special]—
The storm caused by Kruger's stand against the British government, is still bearing fruit, and panic among the timid Uitlanders continues. Empty cars are being run northward with all possible speed to bring them away.

London, June 12.—An attempt is being made here to saddle on Colonial Secretary Chamberlain the sole responsibility for the present Transvaal crisis, some critics of his policy even going so far as to aver that he encouraged the Bloemfontein conference, knowing it would be likely to end in a disagreement which would make for war. There is no truth at all in these rumors. It is thoroughly well known throughout the colonial office that Joseph Chamberlain has been carefully pacified throughout negotiations with Kruger so far as has been consistent with what he has thought to be his duty. Even if this were not so, he would be helpless in the presence of Lord Salisbury's well-known decision for peace at all hazards.

The premier is determined not to declare war, thinking that even at the risk of the uitlanders suffering injustice he has no right to kindle the flame
of racial war in the whole of South Africa. This undoubtedly represents the feeling of the entire country.

Still, to be sure, there is a possibility of hostilities, and the possibility is recognized. It is said on good authority that a provisional plan of operations has been drafted, with a view to that contingency, by Adj.-Gen. Sir Evelyn Wood, Sir Redvers Buller and Gen.
Fraser. The idea of using Delagoa bay as a base of operations has been abandoned, and the longer route to the Transvaal, by way of Natal, which admits of railway transportation to the frontier, has been settled on. Pretoria is so strongly fortified that no attempt would be made to reduce the city.

The chief difficulties are those of transportation, which must be arranged for by the importation of horses and mules from South America.
At least 30,000 troops would have to be sent from home, as the Indian troops could not be used.

CHILDREN'S DAY AT THE CHURCHES

ANNUAL JUNE SERVICES ARE ATTENDED BY MANY.

Special Exercises in Various Congregations—Excellent Programs Prepared and Rendered By the Little Ones—Church Decorations Were Beautiful—Music Was Also a Feature.

All the evangelical churches yesterday celebrated Children's day with special services. The beautiful weather made the crowds larger than usual, for the sunshine and cool breeze combined to make an ideal June Sabbath. Flowers were profusely used in the decorations and the effect was beautifully appropriate to the spirit of the summer anniversary. Singing birds, hidden in the greenery, added to the outdoor impression conveyed in the scheme of ornamentation. Elaborate musical programs were a feature of the services. Hundreds of the little ones took part in the exercises.

The Baptist Church.

A large congregation was present. B. F. Dunwiddie presided. It was one of the best Children's day exercises ever given. Every number was well given, and the children did exceedingly well. The following program was rendered:

In the evening, Rev. Kempton gave another lecture upon "Difficulties with the Bible." The subject was "The Spade and the Scriptures." One of the most interesting chapters of God's word has been laid bare by the spade of the modern archaeologist. Many of the buried cities of the ancient days have been laid bare and bear witness to the truthfulness of the bible. Before this great work there were no records, only those given in the bible, so the skeptics had many things all their own way. Now their arguments are useless for they have been overthrown by the spade.

Just 100 years ago this year a French officer was building a fort in Egypt and his workmen found what is called the rosetta stone, which had three columns of languages. Two of them the scholars understood and the other was the picture language which was so prevalent everywhere in Egypt. Thus the key to that language which tells so many things that confirm the bible was found.

Only twelve years ago a whole library was found buried in Egypt which tells of many things during the days of Abraham and Moses and Joseph and hundreds of other things of which the bible speaks.

While in Jerusalem I saw many things which have been uncovered by Prof. Bliss, which are spoken of in the bible. One of the most valuable and interesting things that have been found is called the Moabite stone. The stone was destroyed but an imperfect impression of the inscription upon it was preserved, and it tells of many things of which the bible speaks.

Mrs. Pinkham's Medicine Made a New Woman of Mrs. Kuhn.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 4,492]

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I think it is my duty to write to you expressing my sincere gratitude for the wonderful relief I have experienced by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tried different doctors, used all different kinds of medicine. I would feel better at times, then would be as bad as ever.

"For eight years I was a great sufferer. I had falling of the womb and was in such misery at my monthly periods I could not work but a little before I would have to lie down. Your medicine has made a new woman of me. I can now work all day and not get tired. I thank you for what you have done for me. I shall always praise your medicine to all suffering women."

"I have taken eight bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used two packages of your Sanative Wash, also some of the Liver Pills, and I can say that your remedies will do all that you claim for them. Before taking your remedies I was very bad with womb trouble, was nervous, had no ambition, could not sleep, and my food seemed to do me no good. Now I am well, and your medicine has cured me. I will gladly recommend your medicine to every one wherever I go."

of the pools of Jerusalem was accidentally found and it tells of the pool which was built by Hezekiah, told of in 2nd Kings.

Only about three years ago the pool of Bethesda was discovered. Only a few years ago walled cities were uncovered in Palestine. The skeptics had said that it was not true. The people did not have such cities as those told of in the bible. These excavations prove their assertions were false. Only about two years ago a tablet was found in Babylon, which tells in a vivid manner of the flood described in the bible.

Only two years ago away down in Egypt a leaf from an old book was found, which was written only a few years after Christ, giving quotations from His sayings.

God grant that these wonderful discoveries may make the Word of God still more precious to us.

VICTORY FOR LOCAL HIGHS

Delavan's Mute Nine Defeated in Saturday's Game

One of the most interesting games of base ball played in Janesville this year was played last Saturday afternoon between the Janesville High school team and the team from the Delavan Institute for the Deaf and Dumb.

The game was played at Athletic park, resulting in a victory for the Bower City boys by a score of 5 to 2. It was a hot contest from start to finish and at no stage of the game were either side confident of victory, thus the playing was all the harder and each entered into the contest with spirit, which made it all the more interesting.

Both teams were in excellent condition and but few errors were made. Both batteries did excellent work and their support was good. The batteries were Wing and Bonesteel for the home team and Sullivan and Smith for the mutes. Wing played a very creditable game and caused many of his opponents to fan the air, such a wonderful control had he over the ball. His helpmates behind the plate, Bonesteel, caught an errorless game. Dougherty won honors by making a home run, in fact the only one of the season. Palmer made a two base hit and an excellent double play.

The methods adopted by the visitors in making known their signals and otherwise conducting the game, caused much merriment.

Bald, of Chicago, and Mathews of this city acted as umpires, taking the places of the regular umpires, who were unable to appear. Their decisions were impartial, but were questioned occasionally by the members of the visiting nine.

Following is the score by innings:
Janesville.....0 0 1 0 2 0 0 0-5
Delavan.....1 0 0 1 0 0 0 0-2

Light Weights vs. Farmers

A game of ball was played yesterday afternoon near the Milton avenue creamery between the Second ward Light Weights of this city, and the Milton avenue Farmers, resulting in favor of the Light Weights by a score of 39 to 19.

The battery for the Second ward team was Green and Hutchinson and Costigan and Risch for the Farmers.

The Club vs. Snipe Hill

An interesting game of ball was played yesterday afternoon between The Club and the Snipe Hill team, resulting in a victory for the former by a score of 22 to 11.

The feature of this game on Snipe hill yesterday was the heavy batting by the members of both teams, as the score would indicate.

The line up of the two teams was as follows:

- | | |

The score by innings was as follows:
The Club.....7 2 0 0 3 6 4-22
Snipe Hill.....5 0 0 0 1 0 5-11

Umpire—Blakely.
Next Sunday there will be a game on Goose Island between The Club and a picked team, and a hot game is assured.

NATIONAL GUARD IS NOW ON ARMY BASIS

JANESVILLE COMPANY NOT INCLUDED IN THE FIRST.

All Old Colonels Retired and New Men Named For Their Positions—Major Joachim Made Lieutenant Colonel of First Regiment—New Officers Have Been Announced.

Orders were issued last Saturday by Adjutant General Boardman reorganizing the Wisconsin national guard on a regular army basis, assigning companies to regimental organizations and announcing the appointment of company and regimental officers. All the business of the guard will hereafter be transacted in strict accordance with regular army rules and regulations. In taking this step Wisconsin has made a move that places her first among all the states in the union in military matters. The guard as reorganized is made up of three regiments of twelve companies each and a separate battalion of four companies. Each company has a minimum strength of 45 men and a maximum of 68. Under the old organization each regiment contained only eight companies with the same strength as now.

The official order just issued states that the organization and muster of the companies of the Wisconsin national guard having been completed, the following assignment of companies to the First regiment organization is announced:

First Regiment—A, Milwaukee, Captain John F. Macdon; B, Ft. Atkinson, Captain Edgar J. Gibson; C, White-water, Captain Frank B. Goodhue; D, Milwaukee, Captain Emil Wilde; E, Beloit, Captain Harvey E. Yeakel; F, Milwaukee, Captain G. Madison, Captain Henry W. Quentmeyer; H, Monroe, Captain Matthias Durst; I, Milwaukee, Captain Oliver E. Lewis; K, Milwaukee, Captain Thaddeus Wild; L, Kenosha, Captain William W. Miller; M, Oconomowoc, Captain Karl L. Froding.

The appointment of officers of the First regiment is as follows:

First Regiment—Colonel, Otto H. Falk; lieutenant colonel, George H. Joachim; major, Daniel A. Stearns; major, John J. Lynch; major, Abraham B. Cambier.

Features of the regimental appointments is the retirement of all the old colonels and the appointment of Major George H. Joachim as lieutenant colonel of the First regiment.

The pay of the officers and enlisted men of the reorganized guard will be the same as that of the regular army, which is as follows: Colonel, $9.72 per day; lieutenant colonel, $8.33; major, $6.94; paymaster, $6.94; captain, mounted, $5.56; captain, unmounted, $5; first lieutenant, mounted, $4.44; first lieutenant, unmounted, $4.17; second lieutenant, unmounted, $3.89; private, $2. The men will be paid only for the time they are in camp or when called into active service.

Hereafter the paymaster will pay each man individually. This year the First regiment will go into camp early in August. The national government will furnish the new uniforms and tentage about the middle of July.

The state has so far received $88,000 from the federal government in part payment on its claim for equipping troops sent to the Spanish war. There is yet due about $150,000.

The following data will be of interest at this time:

1st Regiment infantry, Wisconsin volunteers—Organized as national guard, April 26, 1882; as volunteers April 28, 1888; at Camp Harvey, Milwaukee, Wis., mustered into the service of the United States May 14, 1898, at Camp Harvey, to serve two years unless sooner discharged; assigned to 2d brig., 2d division, 7th corps, May 28, 1898; mustered out October 19, 1898; total strength of regiment, 1,357; died of disease, 45; field officers, Col. Samuel P. Schadel, Lieut. Col. Charles S. Young, Majors George H. Joachim, Daniel A. Stearns and John J. Lynch.

BELOIT'S SUCCESSFUL TRIP

Eastern Tour of Base Ball Team—Defeat of Michigan.

After a victory at Ann Arbor in which they defeated the University of Michigan base ball team, 4 to 1, Beloit college base ball team met Oberlin and Purdue at their homes and were defeated. The score of the Oberlin game was 4 to 1, and the game is pronounced one of the most exciting ever seen at Oberlin. The result of the Purdue game was 13 to 3, but the Beloit team is forgiven, for it was badly broken up from the two previous games. When the team reached Lafayette, Ind., the men were worn out. They had but little sleep the night before and were six hours en route to Lafayette and went at once to the ball field from the train. Edward Brown, who is a tower of strength for the team at second, was unable to play, and Atkins took his place, Blewitt pitching, although suffering from an injury.

The victory over Michigan was the most significant game of the tour, and Beloit is in line for the Western college championship. The team was much pleased with the treatment everywhere accorded them. They found old Beloit students at all three places they visited on the tour. For the game with Chicago there will be many changes in the make-up of the team.

DRESSES LIKE A JAPANESE

Pretty Isadore Rush Says Their Costume is So Comfortable.

Isadore Rush, who enacts the part of Henrietta Oliver in "The Wrong Mr. Wright," which appears at Myers Grand next Wednesday evening contributes materially to the effectiveness of this piece by her handsome dress. She is an ideal woman, so far as trimness and neatness is concerned. In a recent interview she chatted affably about herself and her stage experience.

"I have two weaknesses," said she, "one is for opals and the other is for Japanese gowns. I prefer the oriental costume for house wear, because it is so comfortable, and my wardrobe includes some interesting specimens of eastern handiwork. One of them, valuable because of its antiquity, is a kimono of black crepe, embroidered in gold, which is said to be 150 years old. My fondness for opals is a contradiction to an old superstition. While they have brought ill luck to some people, yet nothing but good fortune has been my lot since my collection has been started. I call them my mascots.

"Years ago my ambition was to become a comic opera singer, and I was trotted out by my friends for private performances whenever the occasion presented itself. I wanted to go on the stage after seeing Mary Anderson play "Rosalind" in my native town. My first professional appearance was seven years ago in "The Woman Hater."

ISADORE RUSH.

Since that time Miss Rush has played a new part every season. As no two of them are alike, and their ages are anywhere from sixteen to forty-five, the demand upon her talents may be understood. Miss Rush has never played with any one except Mr. Reed, who has coached her from the start.

"I have very little chance to see other plays," concluded Miss Rush, as she prepared to leave the wings. "Playing seasons of forty-two weeks with Mr. Reed does not leave much time to be spent on the other side of the foot lights."

North Magnolia.

North Magnolia, June 12.—Corn is about all planted and most of the farmers are busy cultivating, so much rain making plenty of work. A few pieces of tobacco have been set. The cut worms are very bad in some places. Potatoes are growing fast and while the potato bugs are not all killed they are not troubling much yet. An ice cream party in honor of Mr. Walters was held Thursday evening at the Peabody's. A lawn party was also held at Mr. York's the same evening. About twenty young people were present and report a very pleasant time. A social will be held at Mr. Nevil's next Friday evening, June 17. Ice cream and cake will be served. All are cordially invited to attend. School closed Friday for the summer. Mr. Van Patten took his children for a day's fishing at Catfish.

WAGES ARE RAISED

Dispatches to the Sunday papers announce that the final conference between the representatives of iron and steel manufacturers and the Iron and Steel Wage committee of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel and Tin Workers was completed Saturday. The net result is that the wage scales for iron and steel workers as fixed by the recent convention of the Amalgamated association are practically all accepted by the manufacturers. This means a general raise of 25 per cent. for some 45,000 men employed in the iron and steel manufacturing industries. At the conclusion Mr. Taylor, chairman of the conference, thanked the workers of the committee for their gentlemanly deportment, business astuteness and for the fact that they recognized the manufacturers as friends and no longer as enemies. President Shaffor, of the Amalgamated, responded in similar vein, complimenting the manufacturers upon their fairness toward the interests of the employees.

The summary of the increases in the scale follows:

Boiling rate fixed at $5 per ton on a 14-10 card.

Muck or puddle mill men, who previously received a 3 rate now get 1-7 the base price of boiling.

Scraping and busheling men get 25 per cent advance on a 14-10 card.

Busheling on sand bottom receive an advance of 25 per cent on a 14-10 card.

The following branches are raised in the same proportion of 25 per cent: Knobbing, heating slabs and shingling; bar and 12-inch mills and mills making a specialty of working pipe or skelp from iron and steel; plate and tank mills; also guide, ten inch hoop and cotton tie mills.

These advances are the largest made in the history of the Amalgamated association, and the wages for the year will be highest since 1894, although they will not reach the figures paid previous to 1892.

The Amalgamated Association Tin Plate committee will meet representatives of the American Tin Plate company in Pittsburgh next Wednesday.

The man who selected the Spanish gun that was loaned to the city of Milwaukee, was a genius, and a man of fine discriminations. The Evening Wisconsin says the gun "looks like a gigantic loving cup."

The National guard of Wisconsin has been reorganized on the regular army basis which will do away with much bother and annoyance if another emergency arises. The move is a wise one.

Excellent judgment has been shown in the selecting of officers for the new National Guard, and the service will be the gainer by reason of the reorganization.

The fact that certain baking powders contain alum, has again been discovered, and statements to that effect are seen in the public prints, as of yore.

And Jeffries also accomplished another thing, which, so far as we know, no other man has ever done—he caused John L. Sullivan to pray.

The fact that Jeffries "won with his left" should not cause anyone to abandon the principle of striving to win with "the right alone."

The newspaper accounts say that Jeffries' blows had "plenty of steam behind them." Of course, is not Jeffries a boiler maker?

Janesville people will be glad to hear that Hon. John Winans, who is ill at Mount Clemens, is much better.

SEVENTH IN LINE

FROM JOHN ALDEN

ALBERT ALDEN AND HIS LINEAL DESCENDANT.

Romance In His Life Which Was Suspected But Never Told—Picture of a Fair Young Girl In a Locket Which Which He Carried For Fifty Years.

In a new-made grave, beneath the whispering bough of a towering fir in Oak Hill cemetery in this city, divided by half a continent from the wild New England shore where nearly 300 years ago a band of his exiled forefathers moored their bark, lies all that is mortal of Alfred Alden, a direct descendant in the seventh generation of John and Priscilla Alden, who, on that December night in 1620, landed from the Mayflower at Plymouth Rock.

Born in Claremont, a village of the wild New Hampshire hills, and reared in the puritanical atmosphere of his forefathers; inheriting the hardihood and love of pioneer life typical of that Pilgrim band, he grew restless like many of his compatriots, and at the age of 27 sought the broader lands and freer life of the boundless west. Contrary to his expectations, however, the new west, while productive in the extreme at that time, offered no startling opportunities to the fortune hunter, but it was not long until Alfred adapted himself to its conditions and engaged here with his brother, who had preceded him to Wisconsin, in the manufacture of brick.

A man peculiar in many respects, brusque and uncommunicative, of his hopes and ambitions but little would he tell, and rarely could he be induced to discuss his personal affairs. Alfred Alden never married nor was he ever known to seek the society of the other sex since his voluntary exile from the home of his forefathers. If romance there was in his life, it died with him. There is a locket kept sacred by his niece, which once contained, together with the only portrait of himself known to exist, the miniature likeness of a young girl, who was known to have been the sweetheart of his boyhood.

No tale of a lover's quarrel ever passed his lips, nor could he ever be induced to gratify the curiosity of his relatives, as to the cause of their final estrangement. It was a union much desired by his relatives in the east, but whether, like his forefather, he lacked the courage to woo, or whether there was no Priscilla to say: "Why don't you speak for yourself, John?" as it were, will never be known. Be this as it may, some years ago the portrait of the girl disappeared from the locket, and when he was asked in regard to it, he arose and abruptly left the room.

Although seventy-seven years of age, with hair and beard snow white, his iron constitution and remarkable physical strength seemed to defy the passing of time, but last winter did his age begin to assert itself and he failed rapidly. Four weeks ago he suffered an attack of rheumatism and Saturday, June 3, he passed away. His death leaves but one existing of the seventh generation of direct descendants of the poetical famous weaver by proxy for the redoubtable Miles Standish, retaining the family name, a Mrs. Charles L. Alden, of Troy, N. Y., although the collateral descendants are almost numberless.

Hornets as Murderers.

Canadian hornets will tackle almost anything that flies in their quest for food. In illustration an Ontario gardener tells of a singular observation he made recently in his gardens. He found a nightingale nest in one of the hedges and watched it daily until four young birds were hatched out. A day later he was driven away from the nest by a swarm of hornets, which hovered about it, and finally settled upon it like a solid cover of black and gold. Presently the hornets arose and disappeared as suddenly as they had come. The gardener found the four little nightingales dead, their poor bodies being masses of ugly stings.

They Never Sleep.

There are several species of fish, reptiles and insects which never sleep during their stay in this world. Among fish it is now positively known that pike, salmon and goldfish never sleep at all. Also that there are several others of the fish family that never sleep more than a few minutes during a month. There are dozens of species of flies which never indulge in slumber, and from three to five species of serpents which the naturalists have never yet been able to catch napping.

Under a West Virginia law, providing life sentence on a third conviction, a man was recently sent to prison for life for larceny.

PLANTS SEEN IN QUEER PLACES

Ten Story Factory Blooming All Over with Flowers.

Flower pots exposed along the window ledges prove that spring is here. There is no better sign. All winter the faint blooms have shone behind the glass of the panes, but now they take the open air like invalids confined for long, but convalescing. They are curious things, flower pots, and evidence the love of nature born in us all and staying with us to our latest breath. They are seen, too, in the most curious places. There is a huge smoke-grimed factory on the west side, ten stories high. The air about it is thick with coal dust and soot. Yet all summer its ledges bloom like gardens. One knows that many girls work in that factory. The flowers are watered from tin cups that are carried full and dripping the long length of the halls in the luncheon half hour. Men would not take the trouble, but the woman who does not love buds and blooms is as rare as the woman who does not love babies. In either case her thinking machinery has slipped a cog or was built wrongly to begin with. Flower-pots and little seamstresses working high up above the city's roar go together as naturally as turkey and cranberry sauce.

Sound Common Sense...

The saying is an old one but nevertheless a true one, "the best is always the cheapest." It has been proven true in Bicycles to a very great extent. People who bought "cheap" wheels last season and the year before are investing in good wheels this year. Too much expense in repairs, too hard running, in fact entirely worn out.

Wolff-American Bicycles

are good to the core. Cost a trifle more 'tis true, but worth enough more to make up.

WOLFF CHAINLESS with the Sagar Roller Gear outclasses them all. Come and find out why.

JUDGE BENNETT'S REMAINS INTERRED

NOTABLE MEN THROUGH STATE
ATTEND FUNERAL.

Services were held this morning from the residence and the burial was in Oak Hill cemetery. Supreme Court members present—Rev. A. H. Barrington officiated.

Funeral services over the remains of the late Judge John R. Bennett were held this morning from the family residence, corner of Milton and St. Mary's avenues.

Long before the hour of services, every available space in the spacious dwelling was occupied by loving friends who had assembled from all portions of the county to pay their last respects to one they loved.

On the morning trains from the north, south, east and west arrived men prominent in legal affairs, who for many years had known and admired Judge Bennett.

Many attorneys from Jefferson, Dane and Green counties, who have tried cases in Judge Bennett's court, were in attendance.

Several members of the supreme court came down from Madison, returning home on the noon train.

At 10 o'clock, Rev. A. H. Barrington, of Christ Episcopal church, conducted services.

Of the noble character and past life deceased, Rev. Barrington paid a glowing tribute, stating that Judge Bennett's only trouble was the largeness of his heart and that if more people were troubled in the same way the world would be much better today.

He also referred to his thorough grounding, as a true christian.

The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful and fairly hid the casket from view.

Among the floral pieces was one in the shape of a book that was presented by the members of the Rock County Bar association, who attended the funeral in a body.

At the close of the services the remains were tenderly laid to rest in Oak Hill cemetery.

The honorary pall bearers were: F. S. Eldred, E. F. Fitch, Hamilton Richardson, J. M. Bostwick, Dr. J. B. Whiting and A. P. Lovejoy.

The active pall bearers were local attorneys as follows: C. E. Pierce, T. W. Golden, G. G. Sutherland, W. A. Jackson, M. G. Jeffris and W. G. Wheeler.

Among those from out of the city who attended the funeral were:

Madison—W. F. Vilas, B. Stevens, Judge Lyon, Barr Jones, E. W. Koyas, Judge Cassidy, Judge Bryant.

Monroe—Harvey Clark, P. J. Clawson, A. S. Douglas, Winslow, C. W. Wright, R. T. Holcomb, L. A. Woodie, Siebecker, John Luchinsinger.

Waterloo—Harlow Pease, W. H. Woodard, W. H. Rohr, C. R. Skinner, Dr. C. R. Felt, August Tauck, Jr.

Jefferson—O. J. Kerschenshtein, D. H. Brown, R. B. Kirkland, George J. Kispert, William Bates, Silas Menzies, John C. Root, Cornelius Buckley, J. B. Dow.

Beloit—Burr Sprague, Whitewater—Bishop, Weeks, Fort Atkinson—L. B. Caswell, David H. Kelly.

David H. Kelly died at his residence in Milton Junction, on the morning of June 7, 1899. Mr. Kelly was born in Oswego county, N. Y., Feb. 20, 1839.

When fourteen years of age he came west with his parents who settled in Illinois, but a year spent in that state the family again moved, this time to Wisconsin, where they settled upon a farm near Indian Ford.

The greater part of Mr. Kelly's life has been spent in Milton township. In 1862 he was married to Miss Phoebe Wixom. He enlisted in 1864 in the Forty-ninth Wisconsin Infantry and served until the close of the war. Although in the last days of the rebellion he was sick and in the hospital, Mrs. Kelly attending him and returned to the north with him.

We can give no truer estimate of Mr. Kelly than the words of Rev. A. W. Stephens pronounced at the last services: "He was not beloved for what he said or what he did but for what he was."

He commanded the highest respect of a wide circle of friends and in Fulton while a resident of that township, was several times supervisors and also school district clerk. Mr. Kelly leaves besides a wife, four children, Mrs. W. B. Paul of Milton township, E. O. Kelly, groceryman, and R. W. Kelly, jeweler and optician, both of Milton Junction.

The funeral was held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Milton Junction M. E. church, conducted by Rev. A. W. Stephens, who was assisted by Rev. Mr. Dewey of Chicago. The Grand Army Post attended in a body. The remains were tenderly laid to rest in a bed of flowers in the cemetery at Milton Junction.

Mrs. Louis Thompson

Maggie Moe was born in Norway in 1841. In early womanhood she came to this country, shortly after which she was married to Louis Thompson. During their married life Wisconsin had been their home, residing for a number of years near Black Earth, from which place she moved to a farm near Janesville, where they resided until two years ago when they moved to the farm of Witt Stark, near Shopshire, where her death occurred June 6, 1899.

For nearly two years, Mrs. Thompson had been in feeble health, being a great sufferer, yet she bore all with patience and resignation, supported and sustained a firm hope in the omnipotent God.

BRADFORD FARMER COMMITTS SUICIDE

PETER M'NEE WAS FOUND DEAD
YESTERDAY.

After Placing Rope About His Neck He Leaped From the Rear Wheel Of a Buggy—His Daughter First to Make Discovery—Sent Letter to Neighbor Telling His Intention.

Peter McNece committed suicide early yesterday morning at his home in the town of Bradford two miles east of Emerald Grove.

Between the hours of five and six Mr. McNece entered the corn crib and after tying a rope halter to a middle beam he tied the other end about his neck and from the rear wheel of a buggy he jumped into space.

The fall broke his neck and death was in all probability instantaneous.

For some time past the unfortunate man has been acting strange and Saturday night at 10 o'clock he went to his room and wrote a letter to W. F. Goodrich, of Emerald Grove, who is a personal friend of his.

This letter he sent to Goodrich by his daughter, Miss Alice McNece, aged sixteen years.

It read as follows:

"F. F. Goodrich—Do not allow any of the stock to go of the place as I put them all in your charge as they intend to clean me out. Look after my child until Willie and Agnes come and you and them arrange to suit. Try and keep the children together and let Willie look after them if Millard tries to get them put them away some where and this is my last wish and I wish you would fulfill them."

Goodrich and Miss McNece then made all possible haste to the McNece home. On entering the house Goodrich at once made for McNece's bedroom, where he found him lying on the bed with his clothes and shoes on. In his right hand he held a revolver, which he tried to hide in the bed clothes. Goodrich finally wrested the revolver from him.

For fear that he might harm himself or members of his family, Goodrich remained at the McNece home the balance of the night.

At 5 o'clock yesterday morning all the members of the family were about. McNece seemed cheerful, and after greeting Goodrich with a "Good Morning" he went to the stable. At 6 o'clock while Goodrich was reading a paper, Miss McNece came screaming into the house saying that her father had hung himself.

Goodrich at once hastened out of doors and found McNece's limp form hanging in the corn crib. Goodrich felt for the pulse and heart and found that life was extinct.

With the assistance of neighbors the body was cut down and taken into the house.

Evidence showed that after pulling his buggy into the corn crib McNece fastened the doors and then tied a rope halter to one of the middle beams being careful to tie the end containing the buckle to the beam.

The other end he carefully tied in a strong noose knot and placed it about his neck.

Then he stood on the rear wheel of his buggy and let his body swing off. Less than 3 feet away were the walls of the crib and these he easily could have reached had he wished.

Chief of Police Hogan, Justice M. P. Richardson and Undertaker Nelson on receipt of the news went from this city and made an investigation.

Mr. McNece was a Scotchman, forty-three years of age, considered well off financially.

He leaves three daughters and a son. Funeral services will be held from the home Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock and from the Emerald Grove Congregational church at 2 o'clock, the interment to be in the cemetery at Johnstown Center.

Before Justice Richardson this afternoon the inquest was held and several witnesses were examined, including McNece's daughters.

The jury brought in a verdict that McNece came to his death as the result of strangulation by hanging.

Following is the jury: David Brown, Horatio Nelson, William Cole, Charles Kemp, Duncan McArthur and John Grams.

EDGERTON YOUNG MAN KILLED

William Coffman Falls From a Train While Enroute Home.

The body of William Coffman, 17 years of age, of Edgerton, shockingly mutilated, was picked up from the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway track, three miles east of Stoughton Saturday afternoon.

It is not known how the accident occurred, but the general impression is that he fell from the "blind baggage," on which he was stealing a ride.

He left Edgerton Saturday afternoon, where his parents reside and where until quite recently young Coffman had been employed in the Hudson house in that city. He was an industrious young man and was well and favorably known in his home city.

The body was taken to Stoughton when found and the same evening was sent to Edgerton, the parents having been notified of the sad ending of the life of their young son.

The funeral was held today.

WILLIAM CANTILLON AGAIN PROMOTED

SUPT. OF WINONA AND ST. PETER DIVISION.

News Was Received By Janesville Friends This Morning—Has Been Superintendent of the Milwaukee Division—Will Now Have More Responsibility Than Before.

Local friends were notified this morning from Milwaukee of the promotion of William D. Cantillon from the position of assistant superintendent of the Milwaukee division of the Chicago & North-western railroad, to the position of superintendent of the Winona & St. Peter division.

By this promotion it gives Mr. Cantillon a much larger territory to cover and is a position that older men in the service were entitled to had the officials so desired.

Since entering the railroad business, no one has worked harder for the success of the Northwestern road's interests than has Mr. Cantillon and that the company is fully aware of this fact seems quite evident.

Supt. Cantillon is a Janesville boy from birth and for a number of years made this city his home.

..LATE NEWS BY TELEGRAPH..

THE FEUD'S SIXTH VICTIM.

Tom Baker Shot from Ambush—Sheriff White Under Arrest.

Manchester, Ky., June 12.—"Tom" Baker, aged 38, is the sixth man to fall in the famous Baker-Howard feud. He had been indicted for killing Wilson Howard and Burch Storrs, and his case had been transferred to the Knox county court at Barbourville. The soldiers were busy getting ready to march with him and his brothers, who had also been indicted for the same offense.

The party was about sixty yards from the residence of Sheriff Beverly White of Clay county, brother to William White, who was killed by "Tom" Baker. Suddenly a puff of smoke was seen to leap from a window of the White residence, then the report of a gun followed and Baker fell into his wife's arms, shrieking, "They have killed me." A moment later "Tom" Baker, the feud leader, was dead.

As soon as the shot was fired Col. Williams rushed out of his tent and ordered the assembly sounded. He then gave orders to charge upon the White residence, and the boys, with bayonets fixed and rifles loaded, went forward at double-quick, scaling the courtyard fence and making a run for the house. Before they reached it Sheriff White, at the head of thirty men, all armed with heavy pistols, appeared to dispute the way. The battalion halted and Col. Williams demanded that the crowd disperse. The mountaineers were defiant. Col. Williams then spoke one word that caused the belligerents to turn and run. He said "Charge!" and the soldiers rushed forward on a run. The Howards and Whites disappeared around a corner of the house, and then the order was given to surround the building, which was done.

It was found that ten or a dozen men were in the house and they refused to surrender. They threatened to shoot any man who tried to enter the building.

"Bring up the Gatling gun!" shouted Col. Williams, and the engine of death was quickly trained on the house. This had a quieting effect on the men inside. After much parleying the men surrendered. Sheriff White was also put under arrest for resisting the guards.

The state guards have left, going to Barbourville with the surviving Bakers—Wiley, Al Dee and James—under guard, where they will be kept in jail until their trials take place there. "Tom" Baker's remains were taken to his home on Crane creek for burial.

A search of Sheriff White's house revealed a lot of Winchester rifles concealed, showing an alleged premeditated plot to kill Baker. The trouble is by no means over at Manchester, as the factions seem to be cementing more closely, and a conflict among the friends of those under arrest is not improbable. There is no telegraph office nearer Manchester than London, twenty-six miles distant. The people of Manchester are wild with excitement. Sympathy with the Bakers is expressed on every side.

Bellamy Storer Is at Madrid. Madrid, June 12.—Bellamy Storer, United States minister to Spain; Mrs. Storer, Stanton Sikes, secretary of the legation, and their servants arrived here by the southern express Sunday. The British embassy, in whose care the interests of the United States in Spain were confided during the hostilities, was not represented on the arrival of the Americans. The party drove to the Hotel de Rome, where Mr. and Mrs. Storer will remain until their new quarters are ready for occupancy.

To Discuss Fishery Question. St. John's, N. F., June 12.—A conference will take place here this week between the governor of Newfoundland, Sir Henry McCallum, and the British and French commissioners with respect to the fishery question as affecting the treaty coast. It is hoped that matters may be so adjusted as to prevent further friction between the fishermen and that arrangements may be made for compensation in the matter of the burned French lobster factory.

PINGREE QUITS THE RACE.

Governor Will Not Be a Candidate for Re-election.

Detroit, June 12.—The Free Press says: "Gov. Pingree will not be a candidate for office, either this year or next, according to the statement made by one of his closest friends and advisers. It is said his family desire his retirement for social reasons, and also that the governor wishes to show the members of the present republican legislature and others who are said to be obstructing the course of his taxation legislative measures at Lansing that the republican party in Michigan and Wayne county cannot carry an election without the prestige of the Pingree name and his personal influence."

Condition of Spring Wheat.

Washington, June 12.—Preliminary reports of the spring wheat acreage indicate a reduction of about 470,000 acres, or 2.5 per cent. Of the twenty states reporting 10,000 acres or upward in spring wheat, six report an increase aggregating about 245,000 acres, and fourteen a decrease amounting to about 715,000 acres. There is a reduction of 7 per cent in North Dakota, of 5 in Minnesota, 8 in Iowa, 3 in Wisconsin, 1 in Nebraska and 6 in Oregon. On the other hand there is an increase of 4 per cent in South Dakota and of 6 per cent in Washington.

Sharkey Willing to Fight.

Paso Robles, Cal., June 12.—Thomas Sharkey is stopping at Paso Robles and is doing all within his power to get into shape to win the fight which he proposes to have with Jeffries as soon as he can get Jeffries to accept his challenge. He says he is willing to fight under any conditions that will be agreeable to those concerned, and to fight before any responsible club offering the largest purse in an eight-foot ring, the winner to take the entire purse.

Favor Franchise Tax.

New York, June 12.—Governors of two great states—Indiana and Colorado—in letters published in the New York Tribune, endorse the principle of franchise taxation. Their letters are in answer to a query put to the authorities in all the states by the paper as to whether sentiment favoring the taxation of franchisees had been developed in their respective commonwealths.

Paris, June 12.—Through solia ranks of soldiers, and guarded by outriders with drawn revolvers, President Loubet rode to the Grand Prix at Long-champs Sunday afternoon to the tune of wild cheers from Frenchmen of all classes. "Vive Loubet!" and "Vive la republique!" were the twin cries that greeted him on every hand. So enthusiastic were the thousands at the race course in doing their ruler honor that nearly all forgot the classic event which they came to witness until the race had been run. Practically no discordant note was heard. The great precautions of military and police officials had evidently intimidated rabid anti-Dreyfusards who had planned to repeat the hostile demonstration of last Sunday at Auteuil.

GREAT BRITAIN'S REQUEST.

Asks America for a Free Port for the Products of the Yukon.

Washington, June 12.—Great Britain now makes a proposition to the United States for a free port for the products of the Yukon. It is not asked that this port be necessarily on the Lynn canal. The proposition includes a right of way of reasonable latitude through American territory. It is proposed that the arrangement shall last for two years, or during the life of the provisional line. It is understood by the state department officials that this new request of Great Britain, even if rejected, will not complicate the pending negotiations for the agreement on the provisional boundary line.

Want Silver the Big Issue.

New York, June 12.—The managers of the Chicago platform democracy in this city regard with satisfaction the report from Chicago that at the meeting of the democratic national committee, to be held in that city July 30, the silver men will endeavor to put through a resolution shutting out of the next convention all delegates sent by state conventions that fail to reaffirm the last national platform. Dr. John H. Gardner, a member of the state committee of the Chicago platform delegates, said that he did not doubt that such a resolution would be adopted by the national committee, and, for his part, he favored such action.

Northern Indians Starving.

Victoria, B. C., June 12.—The Indians living in the neighborhood of the upper waters of the Stewart river are in a most deplorable condition. A terrible famine prevails in that district, and the natives have already been decimated by lack of food. Conditions have been growing rapidly worse in this respect, and three miners who have just reached here from that country say that the pitiable scenes enacted among the starving Indians beggar description. They are perishing in large numbers.

Gen. Charles King Taken Ill.

Tacoma, Wash., June 12.—Gen. Charles King arrived here at 5 o'clock Sunday night to visit his cousin, Mrs. Emmott, formerly of Milwaukee. During the evening an informal reception was tendered the distinguished soldier. While Gen. King was making a speech to a serenading band he was overcome by exhaustion and had to be carried into the house. A physician was called, who at a late hour said no serious results will follow.

WINE OF CARDUI
Woman's Crowning Virtue.
BELTON, Mo., July 27.
For years I suffered terrible pains every month and my doctor told me I could not be cured except by an operation. I felt I could not submit to that and was so despondent I had given up all hopes of a cure. My husband insisted on my trying Wine of Cardui and at last thank God I did try it. Last month I did not have a pain, and did all my work, which I had not done in seven years.
MRS. MINNIE LITTLE.
Wine of Cardui
Modesty is the crowning virtue of American women. It is the trait that all mankind admires. A modest woman is the most pleasing of all created things. Because of this becoming virtue thousands of women prefer to suffer untold miseries rather than confide their troubles to a physician, and to even think of submitting to an examination is revolting. They can't get their own consent to an operation. Wine of Cardui permits sensitive women to retain their modesty. With it they can cure "female troubles" in the quiet of their own rooms. If special treatment is required they can write to the Advisory Department of the Chattanooga Medicine Co., and their letters will be promptly answered by women trained in the cure of womanly weaknesses and irregularities. There should be no hesitation. Delayed treatment means a chronic condition. The longer postponed the harder to cure.

Predicts a Big Gold Output.
City of Mexico, June 12.—President Robinson of the Mexican Central railway has estimated that Mexico will probably produce $12,000,000 worth of gold this year and predicts that when the richer mines are reached by railways, Mexico's gold production will rise to $25,000,000 or $30,000,000 annually. The best miners here agree that President Robinson is right in his calculations.

WITH POWERFUL HEATING REVERTIBLE FLUE RADIATOR.

This Heating Furnace has been especially made to fill a demand where either coal or cut wood can be used as desired. Heretofore Furnaces were only made for one kind of fuel and especially made for that single purpose.

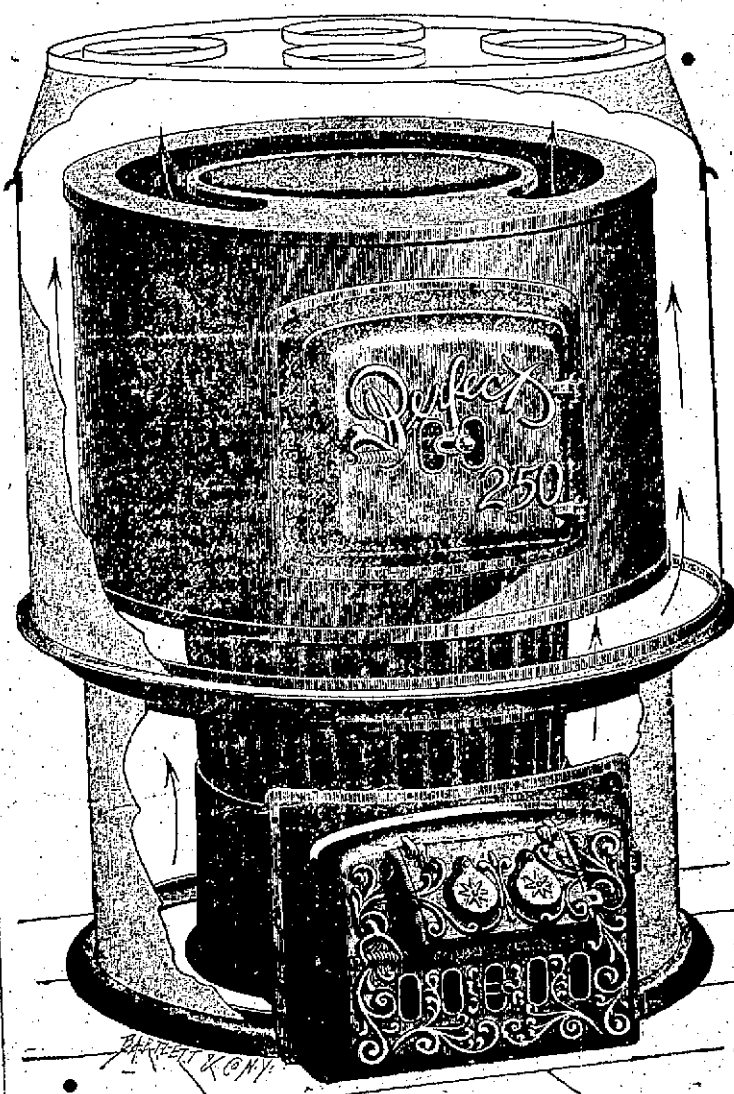

Features are combined in this "Perfect" Furnace that make it an exceedingly powerful, economical heating apparatus suitable for either fuel as is most convenient for the consumer. It is built low, suitable for any cellar. It will pay you to investigate the merits of this Furnace if you expect to put in a new heating plant.

We're not resting on the laurels already gained by our bread—our methods etc. Were after new laurels we're winning them too, with this "Eureka Quality" Bread. Good as experience, the most approved methods, and good material can make it, and far better than what is called "home made bread in many cases. Ask your grocer to stop the wagon.
